

Dear Mrs O'Neill

Staff are so supportive of my son and deal excellently with his particular needs. The School has a way of addressing the needs of individual pupils in such a kind and appropriate way.

Charlie fits in so well, he is developing beautifully and has such good relationships with his friends. High Elms Manor School is a real school, not just a learning factory, and it's more than just a school. There is a sense of community too that is not so well emphasized elsewhere.

Most Sincerely yours

Mrs Turner
